The Court at the admission stage made the following :

ORDER:

This writ petition is totally misconceived. The allegation of the petitioner is that as he came to know about the vacancy in the first respondent-Air Port Authority of India, he applied himself as candidate for the post of Junior Attendant/Electrician. No other particulars are furnished in the petition stating that the first respondent has sought for a list of candidates from the District Employment Exchange, or date of notification or date of written test, or sponsoring the candidates from the Employment Exchange to participate in interview. In the absence of these aspects, there is no enforceable right available to the petitioner to aspire for a post which is not duly notified in any manner what so ever. The writ petition is devoid of merit.

Therefore, the writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed at the admission stage. No costs.
